On the 10th, a former resident of Hartford, died at his late residence on Thursday, at the age of 84 years, Mrs. J. H. Collins, who was a native of the Cool Springs, having resided in this place for many years, and was a member of the Methodist church.

How much better it is to wear a shoe that will not rip. Fair Bros. & Co. sell them.

Quite a lively game of ball was played between Portland and Haysville yesterday, the former giving the latter a score of 10 to 6 in the fifth inning, the score being 10 to 6 in favor of Haysville. Portland went to the loss five times, Haysville had a good catch and will meet again in the county on next Monday.

Rev. R. F. Hughes and Jo. T. Taylor, who closed a very successful revival at Adair Baptist church on last Sunday, 30 members were received into the church and a general religious awakening effected and the church, which is a newly organized one, is greatly strengthened. The ordinance of baptism was administered to 15 converts by the pastor, Jo. T. Taylor, last Sunday.

We're looking at you and wondering why you are not at the Fair. What about that? Why, about that subscription you have been owing Tinsley for all those many months and months ago. You've got to be up to date on every one of those names that are printed on Tinsley's book each week, with the date opposite each. Some are dated away back. Come—drive up with us. If you owe $5 and haven't got it, bring it in. If you owe $10 and haven't got it, bring it in. If you owe $20 and haven't got it, bring it in. It will lighten our load, and it will lighten yours in you and make you feel better.

Many people wonder why and sometimes take offense when their friends or their own departure or arrival is not mentioned. They should take into consideration the fact that the editor is not acquainted with all their relatives and friends and cannot know their movements at all times. The newspaper does not aim to slight anybody and will print a personal notice of a person as quickly as it can of any body else if it knows it. We are after the truth and we will print it. For better or ill and will print it. If you know anything that you wish to get to the
